

Trilateral Forum

Global and International Studies

Nuclear Deterrence as a global challenge

Trilateral Forum Global and International Studies

Nuclear Deterrence as a global challenge

28 November 2018

9h30 - 16h30

Amphithéâtre Espace Schoepflin

Programm

9.30-09.45: Addresses of welcome

- Takamasa Sato (Consul General of Japan)
- Felipe J. Tello (Consulate of United of America)
- Marion Aballea (Sciences Po Strasbourg)

09.45-10.15: Prof. Emmanuel Droit (Sciences Po Strasbourg): Historical Perspective on Nuclear Deterrence as a global challenge

10.15-11.15: Prof. Benoît Pelopidas (Sciences Po Paris): Scoping possible nuclear worlds

11.15-11.30: Coffee Break

11.30-12.30: Prof. Götz Neuneck (Institute for Peace Research and Security Policy in Hamburg): German Interest in nuclear Deterrence

12.30-14.00: Lunch Break

14.00-15.00: Geneve Mantri (US Department of State): The US interest in nuclear non-proliferation

15.00-15.15: Coffee Break

15.15-16.15: Prof. Nobumasa Akiyama (Hitotsubashi University): Changing Strategic Landscape in East Asia and Nuclear Challenges: North Korea, China, and the Alliance

16.15-16.30: Final Roundtable: Which Future for Global Zero Project?